PROFILE

Media & Communication Design student specialising in UI/UX and product design, graduating soon. I design clear, usable products with a focus on accessibility and the people most products overlook. I work well in teams, treat critique as part of the process, and use AI to prototype and iterate faster without losing the thinking behind a decision.

EXPERIENCE

Lexa — Chrome Extension

2025

Sole Designer & Developer

Designed, specced, and shipped a dyslexia-friendly reading layer for the web from scratch in three weeks. Live on the Chrome Web Store, built to Manifest V3. Handled the full scope: UX research, interaction design, visual design, and delivery.
